Asian Golf Nation - August 2011

Dear Travel Partners & Golf Travelers,

Phuket Amateur Golf Week 2011

Welcome to the August edition of the Asian Golf Travel Nation, the source for news breaking information about Asian Golf. In addition, unique golf playing tips for Indochina's tropical environment, announcements of golf travel promotions, and our latest subscription offer are all integral parts of today's newsletter.

I am pleased to report that our Phuket Amateur event last month attracted 25 golfers. Mark Penfold and Ian Morgan did an excellent job arranging and running the event. Our next Thailand golf tournament is the Chiang Mai Amateur Event in October and we are expecting a full field of 100 golfers as the weather is cooler and the event an even better value-for-money. Thank you to those who have signed-up for your continuing support.

We are still the midst of the low summer season and with that there are great promotions around the region. I have always said there's no better time to get away for some summer golf in Asia than right now during the months of August and September.

On the travel front, I will be travelling to Hawaii to promote Golf In A Kingdom. Can you imagine, even golfers in such a beautiful place like Hawaii are now realizing the benefits and value of golfing in Thailand?

With that, I invite you to read on and hear what's new in golf around the region.

Hua Hin: Guess who made the first hole-in-one ever on the 200 yard par-3 13th at the new Royal Thai Army course \(Sea Pine\)? That's right, yours truly, and I even did it with 3 Army generals as witnesses. Bet that made them do a double-take. Well the course is in fantastic condition, especially the greens which run a fast 9.5 on the stimpmeter and the closing 3 holes which play right along the sea. We have very special rates for the high

Asian Golf Monthly

Now in its 12th year, Asian Golf Monthly is firmly established as one of the world's most prominent English-language magazines on golf.

It is unique as the only global title with an Asian perspective. Read more about how Asia's best players and destinations have grown from strength to strength on the global stage.

Laos

 Luang Prabang: Good golf in Laos? Luang Prabang Golf Club is a new "foreigner friendly" golf course located in the UNESCO World Heritage town. Check out this great photo and you will see what I mean. Limestone cliffs provide a magnificent setting and at over 7,400 yards from the tips it is a challenge for all golfers. The on-site resort and convenient daily flights from Bangkok might just make for a worthwhile side trip for those in Asia this fall/winter. Let me know if you are interested. I will be going up to play the course myself and will report on the playing conditions.

 Featured Golf Course - Phunaka Golf Course & Academy

A must play for any visit to the idyllic island of Phuket is a round at the Phunaka Golf course. This exceptional floodlit 9-holes golf course, complete with driving range, putting green, short game practice area and golf academy present challenges and rewards for players all levels.

The location is simply stunning, just a short drive from Phuket Town and the island's beaches, Phunaka Golf Course is set within an area of the most beautifully lush landscape ground. The course itself is ground breaking; the John Morrow (same as Red Mountain) designed golf course is great challenge for all levels of play. Best Under $30 USD Golf Course In Thailand

Thailand has many great courses from Alpine Golf Club in Bangkok to Phuket's Blue Canyon Country Club, both in fact where Tiger Woods won major PGA tournaments.

While these golf courses can be played by all golfers in Thailand at green fees half of what similar courses cost in Europe or the USA, they are still nevertheless expensive for some. Most times I sing the praise for all the upper-end championship courses in Thailand, however in these uncertain economic times, I thought it appropriate to share with you my pick for the best Thailand golf course at the other end of the cost spectrum; that is with green fees under $30.00 USD (25 Euros).

Golfing Tips - What Is Posture And How Important Is It?

Posture is how you set up to the ball, very important and one of the main fundamentals of golf. Everything is built on this foundation and if you have a problem here, it'll show up later in your swing, possibly disguised as something else.
