Asian Golf Travel Nation - July 2014

Dear Golf Travelers,

Welcome to this edition of the Asian Golf Travel Nation, the source for news breaking information about Asian Golf. In addition, unique golf playing tips for Indochina's tropical environment, announcements of golf travel promotions, and our latest subscription offer are all integral parts of today's newsletter.

I have some great news for you. Contrary to what was being reported only 1 month ago, all Thai golf courses are operating normally and all tourism services throughout the country have resumed normal operations following the lift of the nationwide curfew as of June 13. The National Council for Peace and Order (NCPO), is overseeing Thailand's administration and are doing a fantastic job managing the country and its resources. Thai people are more satisfied than ever and more progress has been made in moving the country forward in the last month as compared to the past few years!

Tourism, which accounts for about 7% of Thailand's economy, was affected by months of protests that began last year. Now that the country is peaceful once again the NCPO together in conjunction with the Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT) is committed to promote Thailand's tourism industry. Major tourism campaigns are underway and will continue over the next 12 months.

One excellent example of this is our recent Centara World Masters Golf Championship. Held in Hua Hin and supported by TAT, over 500 golfers from 23 nations competed in the largest ever amateur golf event in Thailand, if not all of Asia. Throughout the week there was nothing but praise for the event, the City of Hua Hin, and Thailand as a country as a safe and first class golfing destination. Moreover, as a testament of how well received the event was, over 100 players registered for the 2015 event on the spot. See for yourself what the entire buzz was about on the event Facebook page.

In conjunction with Thailand, the neighboring countries such as Vietnam, Malaysia, Cambodia and Bali, also offer excellent value golf holidays with fantastic golf courses, great hospitality and first class accommodations. Not sure where you want to golf? We can help you discover a few through our multi-destination Golf Lifestyle Experience™ Tours.

As always there are many golf happenings around the region so with that, I invite you to read this edition of the Asian Golf Nation.

Kingdom's best. Located an hour's drive west of Bangkok and designed by Golf East (Banyan Golf Club), Nikanti has a unique 6/6/6 formula - with two par 3s, two par 4s and two par 5s in three six-hole loops. Nikanti will be a pay-for-play course and costs will be all-inclusive (green fee, golf cart, caddie fee and tip, two meals, and non-alcoholic drinks). Nikanti will open in late 2014 and is bound to attract considerable attention from Thai golf visitors. Watch for more details in coming months.

Chiang Mai Highlands Golf & Spa Resort

Chiang Mai: The new Schmidt-Curley designed 9 holes at Chiangmai Highlands are taking shape. Major earthworks are progressing and could be completed by the end of July. The plan is to have all 27-holes open for play by the end of the year. There is not a lot of water, but there are some interesting holes. Both par 3s are excellent, playing downhill with significant elevation change using natural topography. Also, starting and finishing with par 5s insures the challenge of the new nine will rival the existing 18. There is one long walk between holes, though otherwise the course is "walking friendly".

Gassan Lake City, another Schmidt-Curley project, is in the final stages of new grass planting. After a few months of grow-in, the course should reopen for play by the start of the high season in November. Golf in Chiang Mai will be certainly be better than ever with both upgraded courses and new capacity on the way.

Vietnam

Danang: In a bid to make Vietnam's best golf destination even better, construction at Bana Hills Golf Club is once again underway. Several holes of the world's first Luke Donald course are already shaped, drainage is being added, and a grass sod farm is being maintained. Plans are for all 18 holes to be completed within 1 year and the course to open in 2016. Here is a panoramic shot of the entire site you can see the work going on. Once operational, Bana Hills will be the 4th course to be part of the Golf Coast Vietnam. I can't wait!

Malaysia

Kuala Lumpur: October will see both the US PGA and US LPGA once again make their way to Malaysia's capital and preeminent golf club, Kuala Lumpur Golf & Country Club. October 9-12 is set for the ladies Sime Darby and while the men get underway on October 30 at the CIMB Classic. This year's purses are US$2M and US$7M, respectively. Why not plan a Kuala Lumpur golf tour to coincide with either of the events and let us create a stay-play-watch package for you? Tip: Travel on one of the practice days before an event starts and you can get inside-the-ropes and see all of the PGA and LPGA stars.

Asia Golf Week - Amateur Golf Weeks in Asia

<http://www.asiagolfweek.com>

After the phenomenal success of the Centara World Masters in Hua Hin in June with over 500 people attending, even with the world media advising tourists to keep away from Thailand during the martial law, we have seen an increase in registrations for the next 3 Asia Golf Week events.

While we have a few slots available for the Cambodia and Vietnam events in August, the October tournaments, Hyatt Regency Hua Hin Amateur Week and Siam Country Club Amateur Week in Pattaya and Chiang Mai Amateur Golf Week, are up 50% on registrations compared to last years numbers.

Golfasians Director of Golf Events, Mark Penfold attended the Centara World Masters and commented. "I saw so many first time golfers to Thailand, enjoying the golf courses and experience that Thailand offer. Golf in Thailand is in a great position - The word is out, Thailand has great golf courses, fantastic hotels, and the service and people here are friendly, if you are looking for a great golfing experience then Thailand has something for everyone and every budget. We have great competitions for you to compete in and plenty of prizes on offer."

"While we had to turn a few players away from our tournaments in March and June, due to capacity fields, we have increasing our capacity for the next 3 events, but we still need players to register early if they want to play," Mark added

Registrations for these events can be made online on this tournament link or you can email tournaments@asiagolfweek.com to secure your position

Early bird booking for October will receive a boston bag for bookings and payments finalised by 1st August 2014.

Golf in a Kingdom - Hua Hin - Stay & Play

In Thailand, Hua Hin is the archetypal seaside town. Its popularity stemmed from the fact that it is very conveniently situated only a few hours from Bangkok and was used by the Royal Family as their refuge from the city. It remained a quiet sanctuary for many years. The first golf course Royal Hua Hin, was commissioned in 1924 mainly for British rail workers and the local aristocracy. It is reminiscent of an English parkland course although is surrounded by tree covered hills and affords magnificent views of the sea. Now there are 11 courses, all very different, offering unique challenges and experiences. It could be argued that Hua Hin has become Thailand's equivalent of

Hua Hin, Thailand

Golf Travel Testimonials

Thanks a lot to Marty W. from Koorinal Golf Club in Altona, Australia, for providing us some feedback about his recent golf holiday to Thailand:

1. When was the first time you came to Asia / Thailand to play golf and what was your first impression?
Our first trip to Thailand was in May this year. Our first impression with the golf was, we thought it was amazing!
2. How many times have you travelled to Asia in total for a golf holiday and why do you chose to come back here?
We have only been to Asia once so far and look forward to returning again soon
3. In your opinion, how is the golf experience different in Thailand compared to Australia?
All the courses are so lush and green, and they are so well set up. The caddies make the experience all the better with a cart for each player.
4. Which destination in Thailand would you recommend to your friends when they plan their next golf holiday to Thailand?
Hua Hin was our place to play BUT I hear Pattaya is great for golf also?
5. What is your favorite golf course in Thailand and why?
So far, Black Mountain was our favorite followed by The Banyan golf club
6. What services of Golfasian stand out most in your opinion and on which areas could we improve?
Golf Asian was awesome with their punctuality, service, friendliness and their great staff

Bali - The Island of Golf - Destination Review by Paul Myers

Bali is one of those bucket-list destinations where you might not expect to find great golf. After all, the Island of the Gods is best known for surf, sumptuous resorts, culture, mountains, shopping and friendly people.

Golf IS one of Bali's great attractions, with three wonderful courses within easy reach of the main tourist hubs.

The island's first course, Nirwana Golf Club, designed by Greg Norman, opened in 1994 and has been one of Asia's favourite and most highly regarded layouts ever since. Its five ocean-side holes never cease to intrigue, especially the par-3 7th hole with Tanah Lot temple in the background. This may be the photographed golf hole in Asia.

Part of the Pan Pacific Nirwana Bali Resort, the course is a mixture of terraced rice paddy, rolling fairways with mango and other mature trees, and those beside the ocean.

Also with 20 years' history, Bali National Golf Club, previously known as Bali Golf & Country Club, has just re-opened after an 18-month makeover. The original layout at Nusa Dua has been retained, but completely new green complexes and fairways and two new holes have lifted it another notch.

resentation and design is first-class and it takes some careful negotiation to get around the layout close to your handicap. A new clubhouse beside the 18th green is ideal for watching other players negotiate the final hole.

New Kuta Golf Club is Bali's newest course. Opened in 2009, the Ronald Fream design is part of the rapidly expanding Pecatu Indah Resort area on the Bukit peninsula, 30 minutes from the airport. A mixture of inland holes on the front nine and several leading to and playing beside the ocean on the back nine provide nice variation. The par-3 'Cliffhanger' 15th hole high above the ocean is one of several standouts.

The Golf Academy Bali is located at New Kuta GC and is headed by British PGA professional, Rory Young.

Bali's other 18-hole course, Bali Handara, is planning a renovation that will greatly enhance this very picturesque layout, 90 minutes north of Ngurah Rai airport, which now has a new international terminal.

Featured Golf Course - Bali National Golf Club

A Robin Nelson and Rodney Wright designed Hawaiian-styled golf course, Bali National Golf Club re-opened in 2013 after undergoing extensive renovations. Bali National Golf Club is located at the southern tip of the island near Bali's top hotels. It is only a short 15 minute drive by new 4-lane toll way from the Bali International Airport.

The Bali golf course now features new Paspalum turf, with scalloped bunkering lining most fairways and elevated greens. Many of the newly routed holes have lengthened to championship distances as the course now plays to over 7100 yards from the tips.

Press Release: Centara World Masters Plans Bigger Event in 2015

Hua Hin, Thailand, June 23 — The success of the inaugural Centara World Masters Golf Championship, a week-long tournament played last week in Hua Hin, Thailand, has prompted its organisers to plan an expanded event for 2015.

The tournament, for male and female club golfers aged 35 and over, attracted more than 500 participants from 23 countries, representing 193 golf clubs. It was the largest event of its kind ever played in Asia.

“We are so delighted with the success of the event, and based on the overwhelming positive feedback from participants, we are planning for 700-plus participants next year,” tournament director, Peter McCarthy, the principal of Australian tour operator, Go Golfing, said on Sunday.

He and fellow organiser, Mark Siegel, who owns Asia’s largest golf tour operator, Golfasian, have already received more than 100 bookings before the launch of the 2015 event, to be played again in Hua Hin, from June 14-19, 2015.

Black Mountain, Banyan, Majestic Creek and Imperial Lake View were the host courses this year, and with the anticipated increase in participants, more courses may need to be added.

Siam Country Club, Waterside - Comparison With Old and Plantation Courses

Most golfers in Pattaya agree that the Siam Country Club Old Course and Siam Country Club Plantation Course are the two best golf courses in Pattaya. However, if there are any complaints about the two courses, it is that they are both quite difficult for high handicap golfers. Around the greens it is not uncommon for weekend golfers to take five or more shots to get up-and-down as the slopes, elevated greens, and bunker complexes require accuracy and precision in chipping and putting. Perch yourself one afternoon above the Old Course's 18th and you will see what I mean!

Golfing Tips by Ian Morgan - Pace of Play

Generally the pace of play is a lot slower in Thailand than other parts of the world, so if you are used to three and half hour rounds prepare yourself for taking longer here. Also some of the Thai owned courses allow a five ball, which also slows play up. Our tip is to take your time, enjoy the surroundings and take a drink and cold towel at the Kiosks that are normally every four or five holes.
