LPGA A Brilliant win for Thailand at the Honda LPGA Thailand 2024

After four grueling days in humid conditions, Thailand's Patty Tavatanakit won by just one shot at the 72nd hole, beating Switzerland's Albane Valenzuela to take the winner's trophy plus a handy US$255,000.

BLACK MOUNTAIN has won several awards including one of the 100 best golf courses outside the USA by Golf Digest magazine, and it has hosted many Asian and European Tour events. The most important of these are the small creeks that run throughout Black Mountain and the rocks used as design elements on many of the holes.

<https://www.blackmountainhuahin.com/>

LAGUNA GOLF PHUKET features a resort golf course with pleasant breezes from the Andaman Sea. The course reflects the natural beauty and tropical surroundings as it's set on a valley floor overlooked by low wooded hills and marshlands. KLGCC

Els Club Langkawi

THE ELS CLUB DESARU COAST, to the south-east of peninsular Malaysia, is home to the Ocean Course designed by Ernie Els with one of the most spectacular plots of land anywhere in the world overlooking the South China Sea. Their Valley Course was designed by Vijay Singh, is a completely different test with small greens and sharp undulations. The layout is as dramatic as you'll find anywhere in the world.

<https://www.elsclubmalaysia.com/>

KLGCC'S is Kular Lumpur's premier golf club with two championships 18-hole courses. Their West Course features superbly manicured fairways and flawless aesthetic beauty and has hosted both PGA and Asian Tour events. The Rainforest Course meanders its way through million-year-old rainforest cascading down to the turquoise waters of the Andaman Sea and is overlooked by the marbled limestone peaks of the Mat Cincang Mountains. <https://www.elsclubmalaysia.com/>

THE ELS CLUB TELUK DATAI

Golf in a tropical paradise with breathtaking views...

The course is located in one of South East Asia's most sensational settings, often described as a tropical paradise by tourists and earning The Els Club Teluk Datai a reputation as the most scenic of Malaysia's many breath-taking golfing venues.

A 10-million-year-old rainforest is the backdrop to the course, with the surrounding appeal of the blue waters of the Straits of Malacca. The five holes, which skirt the water's edge, bring the other islands in the archipelago and Langkawi's white, sandy beaches into full view, to the delight of all golfers.

The flawlessly manicured playing surfaces at The Els Club Teluk Datai are a constant, in true tribute to the design which carries its creator's name. With no bunkers on the course, the layout relies on strategically placed tree-lines and a naturally meandering stream, spectacular views across the Straits of Malacca and shadowed by the Mat Chinchang mountain it is no wonder that it caught the eye of the ranking committee.

Cambodia

With just ten courses across the country, we have selected a few to add to your list.

ANGKOR GOLF RESORT was designed by Sir Nick Faldo back in 2007 and has won several international awards. The Siem Reap golf course is a fair test of golf for players of all standards, however Faldo has strategically placed bunkers and water hazards around the 18 holes and the greens have plenty of subtle undulations. Great to combine golf with a visit to Angkor Wat close by.

GARDEN CITY GOLF CLUB opened in April 2013 and immediately emerged as one of the best golf courses in Phnom Penh. The par-72 7,361-yard golf course is 15 kilometers north-east of downtown Phnom Penh. The course conditioning and operations management consulting by IMG is excellent, and there are many moguls, mounds, and human-made hazards that came from the otherwise featureless rice paddy fields.

PHOKEETHRA COUNTRY CLUB This Softel-managed club was voted in 2020 Best Asia Pacific Golf Resort of the year. The golf course hosted the 2009 Johnnie Walker Classic and 2010 Cambodian Open. Major renovations in 2018 keep the course standards to those set when they first opened. The 9th green and 10th tee is a restored 'Rolu' bridge, dating back to the 11th century Khmer empire. Their catch phrase sums it up, "Tee off in the 11th century, and finish your round in the 21st century."

VATTANAC GOLF RESORT includes two contrasting Sir Nick Faldo designed 18-hole golf courses located 15 kilometers from the center of Cambodia's capital. The East Course is publicly accessible, while the West Course is a private members layout. The par-72 East Course plays to over 7,400 yards and through scale models of pre-Angkorean structures including Preah Vihear Temple, Bayon Temple, and Angkor Wat. The design makes a unique combination of culture, leisure, and golf.

CLARK SUN VALLEY GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB is a fairly new club, divided into two good 18-hole golf courses, called the Clark Course or the Dongwon Course at 7,127 yards and the Sun Valley Course, which is slightly shorter at 7,015 yards. They sit in a valley and there are some incredible slopes and elevations, streams, and waterfalls, along with the panoramic view of Mount Pinatubo.

MIMOSA PLUS GOLF COURSE originally opened in 1992 has two 18-hole courses, the challenging Mountainview and the scenic Acacia Lakeview. In 2016 Filinvest, the new owners developed and renovated the courses with the help of Nelson & Haworth. The improved conditions and better course playability add to the enjoyment with larger greens, upgraded bunkers and water hazards.

LUISITA GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB is one of the top courses in the country and has the distinction of being named as 13th on the list of Top 100 Courses in the Philippines. Roughly just 52 minutes North of Angeles City, this 18-hole championship course, was originally designed by Robert Trent Jones Senior. Several lakes and creeks ensure players are kept on their toes throughout their round, and there is no escaping a few water hazards along the way.

Where to stay

So how much should you tip your caddie?

There are several great regions to play golf at the highest level in SE Asia, so here we break down a few favorite places where you can stay to get the best out of your vacation.

Last year Taylor Gooch won his second LIV Golf event in the space of just two weeks winning a staggering US$ 12 million. Spare a thought for his lucky caddie Australian Mal Baker who received around US$ 1.2 million, assuming he was taking the usual 10%.

Excellent work if you can get it, however as for us mere mortals who take in a round of golf in SE Asia, we often wonder how much to tip the beautiful female caddie at the end of our round.

Although the club gives them a percentage of the caddie fee, they really rely on our generosity to tip them at the end of the round.

Remember they probably don't work every day, and having looked after you for 4-5 hours, driven your cart, cleaned your clubs and read the greens, often in hot or wet weather, they do earn their bonus.

Mark Siegel CEO at Golfasian recommends after your round-tipping them between US$15 – 25 especially if it is a hot humid day.

Of course, if you get a hole-in-one or a fistful of birdies maybe it would be a lot more.

And remember they are at least a lot prettier than your average professional bagman!

US$ 15-25

Seems to be the ideal range for a tip. Aim for a higher rate if the day was hot and humid.
